The primary effect of love-perfect love-is to do everything for the sake of God alone. If we love him with all our heart, we want only his good, only his will, toward which we strive. And we strive toward his will, toward his good, every moment of our lives. If we love him with all our soul, we gear our feelings toward his, we look to him constantly in order to think, speak, and act as he does, the way he likes most. If we love him with all our mind, our minds are constantly turned toward him to focus on him, to ask him what his will is, to try to do what he wishes, to best comfort him, to most glorify him.

To love him is to focus on him constantly and to do everything for his sake, for the sake of him alone. All our thoughts must be for him, for his sake; all our words must be uttered for his sake; and all our actions must be performed for his sake. At every moment of our lives we must aim at only one thing, we must seek only one goal: to think, to say, and to do what most pleases our beloved Lord.

Oh, my God, may I love you! That is the only grace I ask of you, for myself and all the living...I pray for your holy love, for myself, for all those for whom you want me to say a special prayer, for all the living, today and in the future. May all love you with all their heart, with all their soul, and with all their mind. I ask this of you with all my soul for them and for myself, on your behalf, on behalf of your heart, oh my Lord Jesus!

Saint Charles de Foucauld (†1916) contemplative and mystic, lived among the Tuareg people of Algeria. His life and writings are the Inspiration of the Congregation of the Little Brothers of Jesus.

A religious painting depicting the Virgin Mary standing on a cloud, holding the Christ Child. She is dressed in a white robe with a blue mantle. Below her, a group of people, including a man in a red robe and a woman in a blue and red dress, are kneeling in prayer. Several white sheep are also present in the foreground. The background shows a green landscape with a blue sky and distant hills.

The Our Lady of Fatima Statue is available for home travel for family prayer, family intentions, praying the rosary for your family, our Country, world peace, etc. Please call the the parish office @ 361-933-1200 during regular scheduled office hours to reserve your week.

“There are angels near you to guide you and protect you, if you would but invoke them. It is not later than we think, it is a bigger world than we think.”
