Meditation of the Day- Set Free by Christ’s Law

In God alone can the human will find absolute and perfect peace. God is the only end of man. All our life on earth is the truthful and exact image of apostolic pilgrimage. Now Christ is the “Way,” for we can never reach God, the supreme and ultimate good, by this toilsome and doubtful road of mortal life, except with Christ as our leader and guide. How so? Firstly and chiefly by his grace; but this would remain “Void” in man if the precepts of his law were neglected. For as we necessarily the case after Jesus Christ had won our salvation, he left behind him his Law for the protection and welfare of the human race, under the guidance of which men, converted from evil life, might safely tend towards God. Going, teach ye all nations... teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you (Mt 28:19-20)...

Various natural appetites attract man on one side and the other; the allurements of the material world impel his soul to follow after what is pleasant rather than the law of Christ. Still, we must strive our best and resist our natural inclinations with all our strength unto the obedience of Christ. For unless they obey reason, they become masters, and carrying the whole man away from Christ, make him their slave... In this contest, every man must be prepared to undergo hardships and troubles for Christ’s sake. It is difficult to reject what so powerfully entices and delights. It is hard and painful to despise the supposed goods of the senses and of fortune for the will and precepts of Christ our Lord. But the Christian is absolutely obliged to be firm, and patient in suffering, if he wish to lead a Christian life...

It is reasonable, therefore, not to expect end to troubles in this world, but rather to steel one’s soul to bear troubles, by which we are taught to look forward with certainty to supreme happiness. Christ has not promised eternal bliss in heaven to riches, nor to a life of ease, to honors, or to power, but to long-suffering and tears, to the love of justice and to cleanness of heart.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

It is possible to love more than we know. A simple person in good faith may have a greater love of God than a theologian and, as a result, a keener understanding of the ways of God with the heart than psychologists have.

Please Join Us to Pray the Rosary Every Tuesday in the Chapel @ 5:00 PM. Everyone is welcome!

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
