My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Most Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the Adoration Chapel every Sunday from 12:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

“On the Way to the Father’s House”

I am prepared to give my life here on earth for God whenever and wherever he demands it of me. May he be a merciful judge of my immortal soul through the redemption won for us by his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. With my last breath I thank God from the bottom of my heart for all the gifts and goodness which I have received throughout my life from his fatherly hand, particularly for the inestimable gift of Catholic parents and a Catholic home, the right to be called a child of God, and the grace of my priestly vocation

It was my greatest happiness on earth to be a Christian and a priest – and my greatest sorrow to have failed so often out of human weakness. May God have mercy upon this miserable sinner. I trust in his mercy and in the promises of Christ and long with all my heart to enter his heavenly kingdom. This is my fervent hope and my humble prayer. I beg all those who in this life have in any way suffered injustice or pain at my hands to forgive me, as I forgive with all my heart every offense and humiliation committed against me!...

There are so many to whom I owe a debt of gratitude... I was never rich enough to repay them here on earth. May God allow me to help them in eternity – I should repay them in good measure. I give my blessing in our Lord to all those to whom I was bound in this life by the ties of blood, of suffering, of work and of religion.

If they saw anything good in me then I beg them to thank God with me; if they saw only human frailty, then may their strength atone for my weakness so that we may all rejoice together in the fulfillment of the promises of our Lord Jesus Christ to whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost be all praise and thanks, and honor and glory for ever and ever.

Blessed Karl Lampert

Blessed Karl Lampert (+1944) an Austrian priest and vicar general of the Diocese of Innsbruck, was killed by the Nazis in the Dachau concentration camp. These words from his diary are quoted by Father John Lenz in his account of the experience of priests in Dachau.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

When I stand up to talk, people listen to me, they will follow what I have to say. Is it any power of mine? Of course not. St. Paul says, “What have you that you have not received and you who have received, why do you glory as if you had not?” But the secret of my power is that I have never in fifty-five years missed spending an hour in the presence of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. That’s where the power comes from. That’s where sermons are born. That’s where every good thought is conceived.
