MEDITATION OF THE DAY-

In Procession with the Lord

If a member of our family has departed this life, and particularly when this has happened under tragic circumstances, we are inclined to observe the anniversary of death in loving remembrance of the deceased. Indeed, we even re-enact in our minds the various phases of his death, saying to ourselves: This is the moment the tragedy occurred; at this moment he was brought to the house; at this time he breathed his last. Mother Church now invites us to re-enact the hours of Jesus' suffering and death.

To begin with, we celebrate the memorial of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem...The entry into Jerusalem is so important a phase of the Passion that the Church devotes an entire day to the event... In this entrance procession we can perceive Jesus' willingness to offer himself as a holocaust, the act of the will that effected the sacrifice of redemption. With the freedom of a king and the love of a bride-groom he advances to his death-as a king he offers his blood for his people, as a bridegroom he gives his life for his bride.

The Church urges us to accompany him in the procession to Calvary, not only outwardly, but also inwardly, that is, we must be filled with the same sentiments which were his when he trod the way of the cross. The Church today gives us a visible sign, a symbol which represents the sentiments of Christ, namely, the palm (branch), a symbol of victory over the devil... Every time we look upon the blessed palms preserved in our homes, they should remind us to carry on the battle against the enemy, and to prove our Christian charity by our works of mercy...Only thus are we made worthy of accompanying the Martyrs, as he goes in procession to his sacrifice on Calvary...Thus we join with heart and voice in paying glory, laud, and honor to our Redeemer and King, offering him all the stored-up energy of our reverence, our gratitude, and our love.

Father Pius Parsch

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

God can do something with those who see who they really are and who know their need of cleansing but can do nothing with the man who feels himself worthy.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen
